Class Attendance Check

I understand that this winter has been brutal with illnesses and other things arise. However, let us be mindful that there are approximately 11 dance weeks remaining until the recital.

At GLDA, our goal is to ensure the dancer feels confident in each step and has a joyful recital experience.

Make-up classes are no longer available due to classes practicing their own routines.

Should you or your dancers teacher feel they are behind, private lessons are available at an additional cost.

Please see Ms. Jen for details.

Check your Dance Shoes

It is important that dancers wear the appropriate shoes for each specific class.

Are your dancers shoes too small? Too Big? Now is the time to order new dance shoes for the recital to ensure they arrive in time!

Ask your dancers teacher to size them or double check they have the correct shoes!

Help a friend and trade your dance shoes in for a new size in the hand me down box!
